the care of children shall bring them up in some honest and lawful employment, and instruct them or cause them to be instructed in reading, writing, speaking, English grammar, geography and arithmetic. And every parent or other person having control of any child over seven years and under sixteen years of age shall cause such child to attend a public day school regularly during the hours and terms while the public school in the district wherein such child resides is in session, or while the school is in session when provision for the instruction of such child is made according to law * * *
unless the parent or person having control of such child can show that the child is elsewhere receiving regularly thorough instruction during said hours and terms in the schools taught in the public schools. Children over fourteen years of age shall not be subject to the requirements of this section while lawfully employed to labor at home or elsewhere. * * *

A person who employs, or causes to be employed, or who exhibits, uses, or has in his custody for the purpose of exhibiting or employing, any child apparently or actually under the age of sixteen years, and who, having the care, custody, or control of such child as parent, relative, guardian, employer, or otherwise, sells, lets out, gives away, or in any way procures, or consents to the employment or exhibition of such a child, either,

1. As a rope or wire walker, dancer, gymnast, contortionist, rider, or acrobat; or,

2. In begging or receiving alms, or in any mendicant occupation; or,

3. In any indecent or immoral exhibition or practice; or,

4. In any practice or exhibition dangerous or injurious to the life, limb, health, or morals of the child;

5. At any labor of any kind outside of the family of such child's residence, before seven o'clock in the morning or after six o'clock in the evening;

—is guilty * * *

Laws of 1895. Ch. 121.—Sec. 2. No child under the age below which all children are by law required to attend school shall in the year next succeeding any birthday of said child be employed at any occupation during the hours in which the public schools in the town or city in which he resides are in session, unless or until in said year he has attended some school for at least a period of time equal to that required by law for attendance of school.

Sec. 4. No child under sixteen years of age who can not read and write simple sentences in the English language shall, except in vacations of the public schools employed at any indoor occupation, provided such child is not a regular attendant at a day or evening school.

Sec. 5. No person, firm or corporation shall employ or permit any child under sixteen (16) years of age to have the care, custody, management or operation of any elevator, or permit any person under eighteen (18) years of age to have the care, custody, management or operation of any elevator running at a speed of over two (200) hundred feet a minute.

1 By Public Acts, 1901, school attendance is compulsory between the ages of 8 and 15 years, and in cities between the ages of 7 and 15 years, for a period of at least 4 months in such school year; except in cities having a duly constituted police force, where attendance is not limited to 4 months, but is required for the entire school year.

2 Amended by Public Acts, 1901, number 113, section 2, prohibiting the employment of children under the age of 14 years in hotels or stores (as well as in manufacturing establishments); but this section does not apply to canning factories or evaporating works.
APPENDIX.

Sec. 7. No child actually or apparently under sixteen (16) years of age shall be employed in any factory, workshop or mercantile establishment, or in the service of any public telegraph, telephone or district messenger company or other corporation, under the person, firm or corporation employing said child procures and keeps on file the certificate required. ** *

Sec. 8. * * * Said certificate shall contain a statement of the name, birthplace, date of birth, and age of child at date of statement.  * The certificate shall also contain a statement or certificate by the officer issuing the same that the child can read at sight and write legibly simple sentences in the English language, or that said child, if unable so to read and write, is regularly attending a day or evening school or has been excused. ** *

Acts of 1897. Ch. 306. — Sec. 2. No child under fourteen (14) years of age shall be employed at any time in any factory or workshop, or about any mine. No such child shall be employed in any mercantile establishment nor in the service of any telegraph, telephone or public messenger company, except during the vacation of the public schools in the town where such child is employed. No child under sixteen (16) years of age shall be employed at any occupation dangerous or injurious to life, limb, health or morals. ** *

General Laws, 1889. Ch. 229. — Sec. 1. Every parent, guardian or other person, who resides in any school district or city, and who has control of any child or children of or between the ages of 8 and 16 years, shall send such child or children to a public, parochial or private school in each year during the entire time the public schools in such district or city are in session.

Provided, however, that such child or children may be excused from such attendances for the whole or any part of such period by the school board or board of education of the school district or city in which such parent, guardian or person having control resides, upon its being shown to the satisfaction of such board: (1) That such parent, guardian or other person having control is not able by reason of poverty to clothe such child properly; or (2) That such child’s bodily or mental condition is such as to prevent his attendance at school or application to study for the period required; or (3) That such child is taught at home in such branches of study as are usually taught in public schools, subject to the same examination as other pupils of such district or city; or (4) That such child has already acquired the ordinary branches required by law; or (5) That such child is actually engaged in some useful occupation, employment or service permitted by law.

MISSISSIPPI.

Annotated Code of Mississippi, 1892. — Sec. 1003. Any person who shall persuade, entice, or decoy away from his father or mother, with whom it resides, any child under the age of twenty-one years if a male, or eighteen if a female, being unmarried, for the purpose of employing such child without the consent of its parents, or one of them, shall, upon conviction, **. **

2Laws of 1882 provide that children under 11 years of age employed during the school term shall present at age and school certificatc; and that all attend school with the school board or board of education for the full term.

3Announced statutes of Nebraska, 1903, provide that every person having control of any child between the ages of 2 and 18 years shall cause such child to attend public day schools not less than two-thirds of the entire time the school in session, and in no case shall such attendance be for a shorter period than 2 weeks during the school term.

4Nebraska Code (as amended by Acts of 1889, Ch. 106). — Sec. 240. No male or female child under the age of ten years shall not be employed in any manufacturing, mechanical industrial or mercantile establishment.

* By acts of 1903 no male person under the age of 15 years, nor female of any age, and no boy under the age of 14 years who can not read and write, shall be permitted to work in any mine. ** *
STATISTICS OF OCCUPATIONS.

Sec. 246b. Any male or female child under the age of fourteen years shall not be employed in any manufacturing, mechanical industrial or mercantile establishment, except during the vacations of the public schools; unless during the year next preceding such employment, said child has for at least twenty weeks attended some public or private day school where the English is taught; nor shall such employment continue unless such child shall in each and every year attend school as herein provided, and no child shall be so employed who does not present a certificate of their compliance with the requirements of this section.

Sec. 246c. Any owner, superintendent or overseer of any such establishment, shall require and keep on file, open to the inspection of the public, a certificate of the age, place of birth and residence of every male and female child under sixteen years of age employed therein, so long as such child is so employed; which certificate shall also state, in case the child is under fourteen years of age, the amount of said child's school attendance during the year next preceding his employment, and such certificate shall be signed by the president and secretary of the school board of the school district in which such child resides.

NEVADA.

Compiled Laws, 1905.—Sec. 1380. Every parent, guardian, or other person in the State of Nevada, having control and charge of a child or children between the ages of eight and fourteen years, shall be required to send such child or children to a public school for a period of at least sixteen weeks in each school year, at least eight weeks of which shall be consecutive, unless such child or children are excused from such attendance by the Board of School Trustees of the school district in which such parents or guardians reside, upon it being shown to their satisfaction that the bodily or mental condition of such child or children has been such as to prevent his, her, or their attendance at school, or application to study, for the period required, or that such child or children are taught in a private school, or at home, in such branches as are usually taught in a primary school, or have already acquired the ordinary branches of learning taught in the public school; provided, in case a public school shall not be taught for the period of sixteen weeks, or any part thereof, during the year, within two miles by the nearest traveled road, of the residence of any person within the school district.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Public Statutes of 1881. Ch. 92.—Sec. 10. No child under the age of ten years shall be employed in any manufacturing establishment.

Sec. 11. No child under the age of sixteen years who can not read and write shall be employed in any manufacturing establishment during the time the public schools in the district in which he resides are in session.

Sec. 12 (as amended by Acts of 1889. Ch. 84). Children not included under the provisions of the preceding section shall not be employed in a manufacturing establishment unless they shall first furnish to the person proposing to employ them a certificate of the school board of the district in which they reside that they have attended some public or private day school in which the common English branches are taught during the preceding year as follows: If under sixteen and over fourteen years of age, twelve weeks; if under fourteen and over twelve years of age, six months, or such part thereof as the schools were in session in such district.

Except that children who are graduates of a regularly graded grammar school, approved by the State superintendent of public instruction, or who have an education equal to that of such graduates, may be granted employment certificates by the school committee of the district in which they reside.

Ch. 268.—Sec. 3. If any person shall employ or exhibit a child under the age of fourteen years in dancing, playing on musical instruments, singing, walking on a wire or rope, or riding or performing as a gymnast, contortionist, or acrobat in any circus or theatrical exhibition, or in any public place whatsoever, or shall cause, procure, or encourage any such child to engage therein, or if any person having the custody or control of any such child shall permit him to be so employed, such person shall be fined but nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the education of children in vocal and instrumental music, or their employment as musicians in any church, chapel, or school, or school exhibition, or to prevent their taking part in any concert or musical exhibition.

NEW JERSEY.

Laws of 1885. (Page 213.)—Sec. 4. No minor, under eighteen years of age, or woman, shall be required to earn any part of the mill gearing or machinery in any factory or workshop while the same is in motion or work between the fixed or traveling part of any machine while it is in motion by the action of steam, water, or other mechanical power.

Supplement of 1885. (Page 212.)—Sec. 28. Any person, whether as parent, relative, guardian, employer or otherwise, having in his or her care, custody or control any child or children under the age of twelve years, who shall sell, apprentice, give away, let out, employ, or otherwise dispose of any such child or children to any person, under any name, title or pretense, for the voluntary, use, occupation, calling, service or purpose of singing, playing on musical instruments, rope walking, dancing, leaping, begging in any public street or highway, or in any mendicant or wandering business whatsoever, and any minor or infant shall, in such case, receive, hire, employ, use or have in custody any such child or children for the aforesaid purpose, shall be deemed guilty.

Sec. 18. (Page 390.)—Any person who shall take, receive, hire or employ any child under twelve years of age in any underground works or mines or like place whatsoever, shall be guilty.

Sec. 9. (Page 407.)—No boy under the age of twelve years, nor any girl under fourteen years of age, shall be employed in any factory, workshop, mine or establishment where the manufacture of any goods whatever is carried on.

Acts of 1887. Ch. 177.—Sec. 7. No minor below the age of sixteen shall be employed at any work dangerous to health, without a certificate of fitness from a reputable physician.

Acts of 1889. Ch. 96.—Sec. 168. No child under the age of fifteen years shall be employed by any person, company or corporation to labor in any business whatever, unless such child shall have attended within twelve months immediately preceding such employment some public or private school. Such attendance shall be for five days or four evenings in every week during a period of at least sixteen weeks which may be divided into two terms of eight consecutive weeks each, so far as the arrangements of school terms will permit.

By acts of 1890 it is required, in general, that every person having the legal control of a child between the ages of seven and twelve years, shall send such child to a public or private school each of which such child shall be in session.

Acts of 1888. Ch. 305.—Sec. 292. A person who employs or causes to be employed, or who exhibits, uses, or has in custody, or trains for the purpose of the exhibition, use or employment of, any child actually or apparently under the age of sixteen years; or who having the care, custody or control of such a child as parent, relative, guardian, employer, or otherwise, sells, lets out, gives away, so trains, or in any way procures or consents to the employment, or to such training, or use, or exhibition of such child; or who neglects or refuses to restrain such child from such training, or from engaging or acting, either

1. As a rope or wire walker, gymnast, wrestler, contortionist, rider or acrobat; or upon any bicycle or similar mechanical vehicle or contrivance; or,

2. In begging or receiving or soliciting alms in any manner or under any pretense, or in any mendicant occupation; or in gathering or picking rags, or collecting cigar stumps, bones or refuse from markets; or in peddling; or,

3. In singing; or dancing; or playing upon a musical instrument; or in a theatrical exhibition; or in any wandering occupation; or,

4. In any illegal, indecent or immoral exhibition or practice; or in the exhibition of any such child when insane, idiotic, or when presenting the appearance of any deformity or unnatural physical formation or development; or,

5. In any practice or exhibition or place dangerous or injurious to the life, limb, health or morals of the child, is guilty of a misdemeanor. But this section does not apply to the employment of any child as a singer or musician in a church, school or academy; or in teaching or learning the science or practice of music; or as a musician in any concert or in a theatrical exhibition; with the written consent of the mayor of the city. * * *

Ch. 678.—Sec. 3. No person, firm or corporation shall employ or permit any child under the age of fifteen years to have the care, custody, management of or to operate any elevator or shall employ or permit any person under the age of eighteen years to have the care, custody, management or operation of any elevator running at a speed of over two hundred feet a minute.

Acts of 1897. Ch. 415.—Sec. 70. A child under the age of fourteen shall not be employed in any factory in this State. A child between the ages of fourteen and sixteen years shall not be employed, unless a certificate executed by a health officer be filed in the office of the employer.

Sec. 72. Such certificate shall state the date and place of birth of the child, if known, and describe the color of the hair and eyes, the height and weight and any distinguishing facial marks of such child, and that, in the opinion of the officer issuing such certificate, such child is upwards of fourteen years of age, and is physically able to perform the work which he intends to do.

Sec. 73. No such certificate shall be granted unless it appears to the satisfaction of such board, department, commissioner or officer that the child applying therefor has regularly attended at a school in which reading, spelling, writing, arithmetic, English grammar and geography are taught, or upon equivalent instruction by a competent teacher elsewhere than at a school, for a period equal to one school year, during the year previous to his arriving at the age of fourteen years, or during the year previous to applying for such certificate, and is able to read and write simple sentences in the English language.

Sec. 74. A child of fourteen years of age, who can read and write simple sentences in the English language, may be employed in a factory during the vacation of the public schools of the city or school district where such child resides. * * *

Sec. 75. Each person owning or operating a factory and employing children therein shall keep, or cause to be kept in the office of such factory, a register, in which shall be recorded the name, birthplace, age and place of residence of all children so employed under the age of sixteen years. * * *

Sec. 162. A child under the age of fourteen years shall not be employed in any mercantile establishment, except that a child upwards of twelve years of age may be employed therein during the vacation of the public schools of the city or district where such establishment is situated. No child under the age of sixteen years shall be employed in any mercantile establishment, unless such child shall produce a certificate issued as provided in this article, to be filed in the office of such establishment.

Sec. 165. No such certificate shall be issued unless it appears to the satisfaction of such board, department, commissioner or officer, that the child applying therefor has regularly attended at a school in which reading, spelling, writing, arithmetic, English grammar and geography are taught, or upon equivalent instruction by a competent teacher elsewhere than at a school, for a period equal in length to one school year, during the year previous to his arriving at the age of fourteen years. * * *

Code of 1899. Ch. 9. Art. 14.—Sec. 738. Every parent, guardian or other person having control of any child between eight and fourteen years of age, shall be required to send such child to a public school in the district, city or village in which he resides at least twelve weeks in each school year, six weeks of which shall be consecutive; * * * provided, that such parent, guardian or other person having control of any child shall be excused from such duty by the school board of the district or the board of education of the city or village, whenever it shall be shown to their satisfaction, subject to appeal as provided by law, that one of the following reasons therefor exists:

1. That such child is taught for the same length of time in a private school, approved by such board; * * *

2. That such child has already acquired the branches of learning taught in the public schools.

1 Acts of 1899 provide that no child under 15 years of age may be employed in any factory or manufacturing establishment other than a glass manufacturer; and that parents, or persons standing in relation of parent, upon whom their children, shall furnish a written statement of the age of such children.
3. That such child is in such a physical or mental condition (as declared by the county physician if required by the board), so as to render such attendance inexpedient or impracticable. If no school is taught in the requisite length of time within two and one-half miles of the residence of such child by the nearest route, such attendance will not be enforced.
