A statement concerning the classification of occupations in 1900 as compared with former censuses is given in the explanatory text (Chapter I) preceding the general tables.

The terms used in certain of the general tables for the United States are explained as follows:

COLORED.—Persons of negro descent, Chinese, Japanese, and Indians. (See Tables 2, 8, 14, 20, and 29.)

NEGRO.—All persons of negro descent. (See Tables 3, 9, 15, 21, and 30.)

INDIAN.—All Indians (including the Eskimos of Alaska), whether living in tribal relations or among the general population. (See Table 3.)

PARENTAGE:

Foreign parentage (or parents).—All persons, either of native or foreign birth, having either one or both parents foreign born. (See Tables 2, 6, 12, 18, 22, 23, 24, and 27.)

Mixed foreign parentage.—All persons, either of native or foreign birth, having both parents foreign born but of different nationalities, as father born in Ireland and mother born in England, father born in Germany and mother born in Austria, etc. (See Tables 22, 23, and 24.)

Native parentage (or parents).—All persons, either of native or foreign birth, having both parents native born, or one parent native born and one parent for whom the birthplace is unknown, or both parents for whom the birthplace is unknown. Persons of this last description are sometimes referred to by the term "unknown parentage," but they are not of sufficient importance numerically to justify separate classification and are accordingly included with the class of native parentage. (See Tables 2, 5, 11, 17, 22, 23, 24, and 26.)

UNEMPLOYED.—Persons ordinarily engaged in gainful labor but not employed during some portion of the census year (June 1, 1899 to May 31, 1900). (See Tables 25 to 30.) The statistics are presented in connection with the occupations upon which persons so reported depend chiefly for support or in which they are usually engaged for the larger part of the time, in order to show to what extent the different classes of productive workers were unemployed during any portion of the census year, either at their customary occupation or in any other form of remunerative work, as more fully explained in the analytical text preceding the general tables.
