37. Sex and nativity, by divisions and States: 1930.....	92
38. Minor races by sex, by divisions and States: 1930.....	93
39. Color and nativity for the urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm population, by States: 1930.....	94
40. Sex for the urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm population, by divisions and States: 1930.....	97
41. Color or race, for cities of 100,000 or more: 1930.....	98
42. Total and white population by nativity and parentage, for cities of 100,000 or more: 1930.....	99
43. Per cent distribution by color and nativity, for cities of 100,000 or more: 1930.....	101
44. Total and native white population, for cities of 100,000 or more: 1930 and 1920.....	102
45. Foreign-born white and Negro population, for cities of 100,000 or more: 1930 and 1920.....	104
46. Sex and color, 1930, with sex ratio for 1930 and 1920, for cities of 100,000 or more.....	106
47. Sex and nativity, for cities of 100,000 or more: 1930.....	107
48. Sex, color, and nativity, for cities of 25,000 to 100,000: 1930.....	108
STATE OF BIRTH
49. Native population classified as born in State of residence or elsewhere, by color, parentage, and sex, for the United States: 1850 to 1930.....	113
50. Native population classified as born in division of residence or elsewhere, by color, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	113
51. Native urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm population classified as born in State of residence or elsewhere, by color, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	114
52. Native urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm population classified as born in division of residence or elsewhere, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	114
53. Native population by State of birth and State of residence, with gain or loss through interstate migration: 1930.....	115
54. Native white population by State of birth and State of residence, with gain or loss through interstate migration: 1930.....	116
55. Native Negro population by State of birth and State of residence, with gain or loss through interstate migration: 1930.....	117
56. Native population of each division and State, by division and State of birth: 1930.....	118
57. Native population by division of birth, for selected cities: 1930.....	126
58. Native population born in State of residence, for cities of 100,000 or more: 1930.....	128
COUNTRY OF BIRTH
59. Country of birth of the foreign-born population by sex, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	129
60. Country of birth of the foreign-born population of the United States: 1850 to 1930.....	130
61. Country of birth of the foreign-born population in urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm areas, for the United States: 1930.....	131

Table	Page
62. Foreign-born white by country of birth and foreign-born nonwhite, by divisions and States: 1930.....	132
63. Foreign-born white by country of birth and foreign-born nonwhite, for cities of 100,000 or more having at least 15,000 foreign-born white: 1930.....	136
64. Place of birth of the total white and nonwhite population, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	138
COUNTRY OF ORIGIN OF THE FOREIGN WHITE STOCK
65. Country of origin of the foreign white stock, by nativity and parentage, for the United States: 1930.....	139
66. Country of origin of the foreign white stock, for the United States: 1890 to 1930.....	140
67. Country of origin of the foreign white stock in urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm areas, for the United States: 1930.....	141
68. Country of origin of the foreign white stock, by divisions and States: 1930.....	142
69. Native white population of foreign or mixed parentage, by country of birth of parents, by divisions and States: 1930.....	145
70. Country of origin of the foreign white stock, for selected cities of 100,000 or more: 1930.....	148
71. Native white population of foreign or mixed parentage by country of birth of parents, for selected cities of 100,000 or more: 1930.....	150
MOTHER TONGUE OF THE FOREIGN-BORN WHITE POPULATION
72. Mother tongue of the foreign-born white population of the United States, by sex: 1930, 1920, and 1910.....	152
73. Mother tongue of the foreign-born white population, by country of birth, for the United States: 1930.....	153
74. Mother tongue of the foreign-born white population in urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm areas, for the United States: 1930.....	155
75. Principal mother tongues of the foreign-born white population, by divisions and States: 1930.....	156
76. Principal mother tongues of the foreign-born white population, for cities of 100,000 or more having at least 15,000 foreign-born white: 1930.....	158
CITIZENSHIP OF THE FOREIGN BORN
77. Citizenship of the population, by color, nativity, sex, and age, for the United States: 1890 to 1930.....	160
78. Citizenship of the foreign-born white population, total and 21 years old and over, by country of birth, for the United States: 1930.....	162
79. Citizenship of the foreign-born white population 21 years old and over, by sex and country of birth, for the United States: 1930.....	163
80. Citizenship of the population, by color, nativity, sex, and age, in urban and rural areas, for the United States: 1930.....	164
81. Citizenship of the foreign-born white population, total and 21 years old and over, by divisions and States: 1930.....	165
82. Citizenship of the foreign-born white population 21 years old and over, by sex, by divisions and States: 1930.....	166
83. Native and naturalized population 21 years old and over (potential voting population), by color or race, by divisions and States: 1930.....	167
84. Citizenship of the foreign-born white population, total and 21 years old and over, for cities of 100,000 or more having at least 15,000 foreign-born white: 1930.....	168
85. Citizenship of the foreign-born white population 21 years old and over, by sex, for cities of 100,000 or more having at least 15,000 foreign-born white: 1930.....	169
86. Citizenship of the foreign-born white population 21 years old and over, for cities of 25,000 to 500,000: 1930.....	170
YEAR OF IMMIGRATION OF THE FOREIGN BORN
87. Year of immigration of the total foreign-born population, by color or race and sex, for the United States: 1930.....	173
88. Year of immigration of the foreign-born white population, by sex, in urban and rural areas, for the United States: 1930.....	173
89. Year of immigration of the foreign-born white population, by country of birth, for the United States: 1930.....	174
90. Per cent distribution of the foreign-born white population by year of immigration and country of birth, for the United States: 1930.....	175
91. Year of immigration of the foreign-born white population, by sex and country of birth, for the United States: 1930.....	176
92. Year of immigration of the foreign-born white population, by divisions and States: 1930.....	177
93. Per cent distribution of the foreign-born white population by year of immigration, by divisions and States: 1930.....	178
94. Year of immigration of foreign-born nonwhite races, for selected States: 1930.....	179
95. Year of immigration of the foreign-born white population, for cities of 100,000 or more having at least 15,000 foreign-born white: 1930.....	180
96. Per cent distribution of the foreign-born white population by year of immigration, for cities of 100,000 or more having at least 15,000 foreign-born white: 1930.....	181
AGE DISTRIBUTION
97. Age for the total population of the United States: 1850 to 1930.....	182
98. Age by color, nativity, and sex, for the United States: 1930.....	183
99. Per cent distribution by age, by color, nativity, and sex, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	184
100. Age by single years by sex, for the United States: 1930.....	185
101. Median ages by color, nativity, and sex, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	185

119. Marital condition of the population 15 years old and over, by sex and age and by color and nativity, by States: 1930.....	244
120. Marital condition of the population 15 years old and over, by sex and age and by color and nativity, for cities of 500,000 or more: 1930.....	254
121. Marital condition of the population 15 years old and over, by sex, for cities of 500,000 or more: 1930.....	258
122. Marital condition of the population 15 years old and over, by sex, for cities of 100,000 to 500,000: 1930.....	258
SCHOOL ATTENDANCE
123. School attendance for persons 7 to 20 years old, by color, nativity, and sex, for the United States: 1930, 1920, and 1910.....	260
124. School attendance by color, nativity, sex, and age, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	261
125. School attendance by single years from 5 to 20, by color, nativity, and sex, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	262
126. School attendance by color, nativity, sex, and age, in urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm areas, for the United States: 1930.....	263
127. Total number of persons attending school, and number 7 to 20 years old by sex, by divisions and States: 1930.....	264
128. School attendance for persons 7 to 20 years old, by color and nativity, by divisions and States: 1930.....	265
129. School attendance for persons 7 to 13, and 14 and 15 years old, by divisions and States: 1930 and 1920.....	266
130. School attendance for persons 16 and 17, and 18 to 20 years old, by divisions and States: 1930 and 1920.....	267
131. Total number of persons attending school, and number 7 to 20 years old by sex, for cities of 500,000 or more: 1930.....	268
132. School attendance for persons 7 to 20 years old, by color and nativity, for cities of 500,000 or more: 1930.....	268
133. School attendance for persons 7 to 20 years old, by age for cities of 500,000 or more: 1930 and 1920.....	269
134. School attendance for persons 7 to 20 years old, by age, for cities of 100,000 to 500,000: 1930.....	270
135. School attendance for persons 10 to 20 years old, by sex, color, age, and occupational status, for the United States: 1930.....	271
136. Persons 10 to 20 years old neither gainfully occupied nor attending school (omitting married females), by age, for States and for cities of 500,000 or more: 1930.....	273
137. Persons 10 to 20 years old both gainfully occupied and attending school, by age, for States and for cities of 500,000 or more: 1930.....	274
ILLITERACY
138. Illiteracy in the population 10 years old and over, by color, nativity, and sex, for the United States: 1870 to 1930.....	276
139. Illiteracy in the population 10 years old and over, by color, nativity, sex, and age, for the United States: 1930 and 1920.....	276
140. Illiteracy in the urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm population 10 years old and over, by color, nativity, sex, and age, for the United States: 1930.....	277
141. Illiteracy in the foreign-born white population 10 years old and over, by sex and country of birth, for the United States: 1930.....	278
142. Illiteracy in the population 10 years old and over, by sex, color, and nativity, by divisions and States: 1930.....	279
143. Illiteracy in the population 21 years old and over, by color and nativity, by divisions and States: 1930.....	283
144. Illiteracy in the population 10 years old and over, by sex, color, and nativity, for cities of 500,000 or more: 1930.....	284
145. Illiteracy in the population 21 years old and over, by color and nativity, for cities of 500,000 or more: 1930.....	285
146. Illiteracy in the population 10 years old and over, by color and nativity, for cities of 25,000 to 500,000: 1930.....	286
INABILITY TO SPEAK ENGLISH
147. Inability to speak English in the foreign-born population 10 years old and over, by color or race and sex, for the United States: 1890 to 1930.....	292
148. Inability to speak English in the foreign-born white population 10 years old and over, by sex and literacy, in urban and rural areas, for the United States: 1930.....	292
149. Inability to speak English in the foreign-born white population 10 years old and over, by sex, age, literacy, and country of birth, for the United States: 1930.....	293
150. Inability to speak English in the foreign-born white population 10 years old and over, by literacy and sex: 1930.....	296
151. Inability to speak English in the foreign-born white population 10 years old and over, by age, by divisions and States: 1930.....	297
152. Inability to speak English in the foreign-born white population 10 years old and over, by literacy and sex, for cities of 100,000 or more having at least 15,000 foreign-born white: 1930.....	298
153. Inability to speak English in the foreign-born white population 10 years old and over, by age, for cities of 100,000 or more having at least 15,000 foreign-born white: 1930.....	299

POPULATION

INTRODUCTION

Total population.—The data presented in this section of the Abstract relate to the population of continental United States, except for Table 1, which gives the population of the United States and all its outlying territories and possessions. Figures are given for States and counties, for cities and other urban places having 2,500 inhabitants or more, and for urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm areas.

Urban and rural areas.—Urban population, as defined by the Census Bureau, is in general that residing in cities and other incorporated places having 2,500 inhabitants or more, the remainder being classified as rural. In New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island, towns (townships) are classified as urban if they have more than 2,500 inhabitants and certain urban characteristics, and a few large townships in other States are likewise classified as urban under a special rule; these townships and the New England towns constituting the exceptions to the general definition of urban population are indicated by asterisks in Tables 16 to 19.

Farm population.—Both rural and urban population are subdivided into farm and nonfarm, though for the urban-farm population nothing except the total number is given. The farm population comprises all persons living on farms, without regard to occupation. The rural-farm population includes more than 99 per cent of the total farm population. The rural-nonfarm (or "village") population includes small manufacturing villages and trading centers, unincorporated suburban areas, mining settlements, etc., and a considerable number of families living in the open country but not on farms.

Color and nativity.—In the main tabulations of the population by color or race, three groups are distinguished, namely, white, Negro, and "Other races." In a few of the tables, however, the third group is subdivided into its constituent parts, the principal ones being Mexican, Indian, Chinese, and Japanese. Mexicans were shown separately for the first time in 1930, the enumerators being instructed to return as Mexican all persons born in Mexico or having parents born in Mexico who were not definitely white, Negro, Indian, Chinese, or Japanese. The Mexican population was for the most part included in the white population in 1920 and in earlier censuses. For comparative purposes, however, the Mexican population in 1920 and 1910 has been estimated, and the 1920 and 1910 figures for the white population in most of the tables have been adjusted to a basis comparable with those for 1930 by subtracting these estimates.

In the classification by nativity, a person born in the United States or in any of its territories or possessions is counted as native. The tabulations showing nativity and parentage are for the most part restricted to the white population. The native white population is usually divided into two groups, those of native parentage (both parents native) and those of foreign or mixed parentage (one or both parents foreign born). The second group is in some tables subdivided so as to show separately those of foreign parentage (both parents foreign born) and those of mixed parentage (one parent native and the other foreign born).

State of birth.—The native population is classified by State of birth, the resulting figures giving some indication of interstate migration.

Country of birth.—The foreign-born population is classified according to country of birth, the European countries being presented in accordance with their postwar boundaries.

Foreign white stock by country of origin.—The foreign white stock, as defined by the Census Bureau, is composed of two distinct elements, the foreign-born white and the native white of foreign or mixed parentage. In the tables showing country of origin the foreign-born white are classified according to country of birth, and the native white of foreign or mixed parentage according to country of birth of father, except where the father is native and the mother foreign born, in which case the classification is according to country of birth of mother.

Mother tongue.—Statistics of mother tongue are presented only for the foreign-born white population. Mother tongue is defined as the language commonly spoken in the home before coming to the United States. The tables showing mother tongue by country of birth are particularly significant as indicating the ethnic stock of the population which has come to the United States from certain of the European countries.

Citizenship.—In the classification of the foreign-born population by citizenship four groups are shown, namely, naturalized, having first papers (that is, having made formal declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States), alien, and a group designated "Unknown," made up of persons whose citizenship status was not reported. Citizenship figures are presented for the foreign-born white population in considerable detail, and for foreign-born Negroes and Mexicans in more condensed form. Foreign-born Chinese, Japanese, and Indians are not eligible to citizenship and are all classed as aliens.

Year of immigration.—The foreign-born white population has been tabulated by year of immigration for several censuses. For 1930 alone these figures are presented by country of birth.

Age.—The age classification in the census returns is based on age at last birthday; that is, age in completed years. In view of the increasing interest in the age composition of the population, the 1930 population data have been classified by age more extensively than those of any previous census.

Marital condition.—The classification as to marital condition—that is, whether single, married, widowed, or divorced—is presented in most cases for the male and female population 15 years old and over, though in some of the tables this classification is given for the various ages in order to bring out significant differences.

School attendance.—The school attendance tabulation is based on the replies to the enumerator's inquiry as to whether the person had attended school or college of any kind since September 1, 1929. Since the inquiry was made for the most part in April, 1930, the returns should include practically all persons who attended school for any part of the school year 1929-30. The whole number will therefore include some persons who attended school for a short time only and who were not attending at the time of the enumeration. Attention is called especially to two tables (Tables 136 and 137) presenting data on the number of young persons neither gainfully occupied nor at school, and the number both at work and at school.

Illiteracy.—The Census Bureau defines as illiterate any person 10 years old and over who is not able to read and write, either in English or in some other language. The classification is based on answers given to the enumerator in response to the question "Whether able to read and write." No specific test of ability to read and write was prescribed, but the enumerators were instructed not to return the answer "Yes" (which would classify the person as literate) simply because the person was able to write his or her name.

Inability to speak English.—The foreign-born population has been tabulated in accordance with ability to speak English for several censuses. In 1930, however, for the first time, this tabulation has been made in combination with country of birth and with literacy. The latter combination provides, among other data, the number of persons able to read and write (presumably in their native language) but not able to speak English.

Detailed reports on population.—The population statistics presented in this section of the Abstract have been taken from the first three volumes of the Fifteenth Census Reports on Population, in which are presented much more detailed statistics on the same subjects. Each of these three volumes is made up of a series of bulletins, most of which can be obtained in separate form by those desiring the statistics for a single State or for a single subject. The volumes and the series of bulletins are as follows:

Volume I.—Number and Distribution of Inhabitants.
First Series Population Bulletins: Published for each State, and for the United States as a whole.

Volume II.—General Report—Statistics by Subjects.
This volume comprises the following chapters, which are published as separate bulletins:

- Chapter 1. Urban and Rural Population, Metropolitan Districts, and Center of Population.
- Chapter 2. Color or Race, Nativity, and Parentage.
- Chapter 3. Sex Distribution.
- Chapter 4. State of Birth of the Native Population.
- Chapter 5. Country of Birth of the Foreign Born.
- Chapter 6. Country of Origin of the Foreign White Stock.
- Chapter 7. Mother Tongue of the Foreign-born White Population.
- Chapter 8. Citizenship of the Foreign Born.
- Chapter 9. Year of Immigration of the Foreign Born.
- Chapter 10. Age Distribution.
- Chapter 11. Marital Condition.
- Chapter 12. School Attendance.
- Chapter 13. Illiteracy.
- Chapter 14. Inability to Speak English.

Volume III.—Reports by States, Showing the Composition and Characteristics of the Population for Counties, Cities, and Townships or Other Minor Civil Divisions.

Part 1, comprising the United States Summary and the States arranged alphabetically from Alabama to Missouri.

Part 2, comprising the States from Montana to Wyoming.

Second Series Population Bulletins: Published for each State and for the United States as a whole.

<sup>1</sup> The figures given for the various census years represent the area of all the land within the present boundaries of continental United States which was under the jurisdiction of the United States on the date in question, including in some cases considerable areas of land not then organized or settled and not covered by the census.
<sup>2</sup> In comparing this percentage of increase with that shown for the decade 1910-1920, allowance should be made for the fact that the period between the censuses of 1910 and 1920 was less than a full decade, and that between the 1920 and 1930 censuses was more than a full decade. An increase of 16.1 per cent for 123 months (the time between Jan. 1, 1920, and Apr. 1, 1930) is equivalent to 15.7 per cent for exactly 10 years; and the 1920 increase for 116½ months (the time between Apr. 15, 1910, and Jan. 1, 1920) is equivalent to 15.4 per cent for 120 months. Making this adjustment, the rate of increase for the decade ending in 1930 is only slightly higher than that for the preceding decade.
<sup>3</sup> The census of 1870 is recognized as having been incomplete in the Southern States. Accepting an estimate made in the 1890 Report on Population, the corrected population of 1870 is 39,818,449, making an increase from 1860 to 1870 of 26.6 per cent instead of 22.6, and from 1870 to 1880 an increase of 23.0 per cent instead of 30.1.

<sup>1</sup> The total number of places of certain classes for the United States as a whole is less than the sum of the numbers shown for the individual States in Table 8, for the reason that there are a few places which lie in two adjoining States and are counted in each State. In 1930, these places included Bluefield (Virginia and West Virginia), Bristol (Tennessee and Virginia), Delmar (Delaware and Maryland), Harrison and West Harrison (Ohio and Indiana), Junction City (Arkansas and Louisiana), Texarkana (Arkansas and Texas), Texhoma (Oklahoma and Texas), and Union City (Indiana and Ohio). Each of these places consists of two incorporated municipalities, but is, from the statistical standpoint, one place and is classed according to its total population. In each case that part of the population living in each State, whatever its number, is credited to the group to which, according to its total population, the place belongs. There are included in some of the groups in this table a small number of places not having a municipal incorporation, which are classed as urban in 1930 under special ruling (see p. 5.)

<sup>1</sup> The decrease in per cent urban in New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island is due to the change in classification by which towns (townships) of 2,500 or more having a settled area which was less than 50 per cent of the total population were not classed as urban. In 1920 all towns of 2,500 or more in these 3 States were classified as urban.

TABLE 11.—POSITION OF THE CENTER OF POPULATION: 1790 TO 1930

[The center of population may be said to represent the center of gravity of the population. If the surface of the United States be considered as a rigid level plane without weight and the population distributed thereon, all individuals being assumed to have equal weight, the point on which this plane would balance would be the center of population. This pivotal point would be the center of gravity of the hypothetical plane; and its location would be affected not only by the numbers of persons on the different parts of the plane, but also by the distance of each individual from the "center." The computations for the center of population are made for continental United States, omitting Alaska and the other outlying Territories and possessions.]

TABLE 21.—POPULATION, LAND AREA, AND DENSITY, FOR METROPOLITAN DISTRICTS: 1930

[The metropolitan districts for the census of 1930, as here presented, include, in addition to the central city or cities, all adjacent and contiguous civil divisions having a density of 160 inhabitants or more per square mile, and also, as a rule, those civil divisions of less density that are directly contiguous to the central cities, or are entirely or nearly surrounded by minor civil divisions that have the required density. This is essentially the same procedure as that followed in determining the metropolitan districts for cities of over 200,000 inhabitants at the censuses of 1910 and 1920, except that the area which might be included within the metropolitan district was then limited to the territory within 10 miles of the city boundary, while no such limit was applied in 1930.

Ninety-six metropolitan districts have been established, each having an aggregate population of 100,000 or more and containing one or more central cities of 50,000 or more inhabitants. No metropolitan district was established for those cities which did not have in the central city and surrounding area a population of at least 100,000. The metropolitan districts are designated by the name of the central city, or in those cases where the area includes two or more important cities no one of which can properly be regarded as the central or dominant city, by the combined names of such cities. The total population of these 96 metropolitan districts in 1930 was 54,753,645 of which 37,814,610 was in the central cities and 16,939,035 was outside]
