* Employees and pay roll include paid executives of corporations but not the number and compensation of proprietors of unincorporated businesses.

1 Previously published totals for the State, for 1935 and 1939, are revised to exclude service garages and other automotive service businesses whose receipts from service sales exceed their sales of merchandise. These are now included in the Census of Service Establishments.

2 Not available.

3 Includes one hard-goods store (auto supplies, hardware items, household appliances, sporting goods and often furniture).

* Employees and pay roll include paid executives of corporations but not the number and compensation of proprietors of unincorporated businesses.

1 Previously published totals for the State, for 1935 and 1929, are revised to exclude service garages and other automotive service businesses whose receipts from service sales exceed their sales of merchandise. These are now included in the Census of Service Establishments.

2 Not available.

3 Less than $500.

4 Includes 17 hard-goods stores (auto supplies, hardware items, household appliances, sporting goods and often furniture).

* Employees and pay roll include paid executives of corporations but not the number and compensation of proprietors of unincorporated businesses.

1 Previously published totals for the State, for 1935 and 1929, are revised to exclude service garages and other automotive service businesses whose receipts from service sales exceed their sales of merchandise. These are now included in the Census of Service Establishments.

2 Not available.

3 Includes 12 hard-goods stores (auto supplies, hardware items, household appliances, sporting goods and often furniture).

* Employees and pay roll include paid executives of corporations but not the number and compensation of proprietors of unincorporated businesses.

1 Previously published totals for the State, for 1935 and 1929, are revised to exclude service garages and other automotive service businesses whose receipts from service sales exceed their sales of merchandise. These are now included in the Census of Service Establishments.

2 Not available.

3 Includes 65 hard-goods stores (auto supplies, hardware items, household appliances, sporting goods and often furniture).

4 Less than $500.

* Employees and pay roll include paid executives of corporations but not the number and compensation of proprietors of unincorporated businesses.

¹ Previously published totals for the State, for 1935 and 1929, are revised to exclude service garages and other automotive service businesses whose receipts from service sales exceed their sales of merchandise. These are now included in the Census of Service Establishments.² Not available.³ Includes two hard-goods stores (auto supplies, hardware items, household appliances, sporting goods and often furniture).

* Employees and pay roll include paid executives of corporations but not the number and compensation of proprietors of unincorporated businesses.

1 Previously published totals for the State, for 1955 and 1959, are revised to exclude service garages and other automotive service businesses whose receipts from service sales exceed their sales of merchandise. These are now included in the Census of Service Establishments.

2 Not available.

3 Includes 18 hard-goods stores (auto supplies, hardware items, household appliances, sporting goods and often furniture).

* Employees and pay roll include paid executives of corporations but not the number and compensation of proprietors of unincorporated businesses.

1 Previously published totals for the State, for 1955 and 1929, are revised to exclude service garages and other automotive service businesses whose receipts from service sales exceed their sales of merchandise. These are now included in the Census of Service Establishments.

2 Not available.

3 Less than $500.

4 Includes four hard-goods stores (auto supplies, hardware items, household appliances, sporting goods and often furniture).
