CORRECTION NOTE

The official 1970 population count for Rhode Island is 949,723. This differs from the figure of 946,725 shown in the tables of this report: the correction results from errors discovered after the tabulations were completed. The tables have not been revised to reflect either this correction or the corrections listed below for counties, county subdivisions, and places (or for the larger areas of which they are a part).

¹In 1970, a portion of Columbia city is classified as rural; the size classification in this table is based on the total population of Columbia. See section on "Extended cities" in text. ²Figures for items under "Urban" and "Urbanized areas" exclude the population of Columbia classified as rural. ³Figures for 1970 include population classified as rural in Columbia city.

CORRECTION NOTE

The official 1970 census population count for South Dakota is 666,257. This differs from the figure of 665,507 shown in the tables of this report; the correction results from errors found after the tabulations were completed. The tables have not been revised to reflect this correction or the corrections listed below for counties, county subdivisions, and places (or for the larger areas of which they are a part).

CORRECTION NOTE

The official 1970 population count for Tennessee is 3,924,164. This differs from the figure of 3,923,687 shown in the tables of this report; the correction results from errors found after the tabulations were completed. The tables have not been revised to reflect either this correction or the corrections listed below for counties, county subdivisions, and places (or for the larger areas of which they are a part).

¹In 1970, portions of certain cities are classified as rural; the size classification in this table is based on the total population within legal boundaries. See section on "Extended cities" in text. ²Figures for items under "Urban" and "Urbanized areas" exclude the population classified as rural within extended cities. ³Figures for 1970 include population classified as rural within extended cities.
